He is Worthy of Our Worship

For about the last four months I have been involved in a Bible Study that is studying the book of Revelation. I never realized how much was in this book! God continues to reveal to me His glory, His power, His grace, His mercy, His love, His faithfulness and His forgiveness. Realizing all He has done, is doing and will do in my life leaves me amazed and in awe that all I can do is worship Him. Several passages in Revelation give a brief, yet beautiful description of worship taking place in heaven.

Revelation 4:8-11

Revelation 5:11-14

Revelation 7:9-12

Everything we do should be an act of worship, not just on Sunday mornings singing hymns and praise songs. God wants us to use all of ourselves (hands, feet, mouths, gifts, talents, jobs, daily routines, etc.) to praise Him and give Him glory. He is worthy of all our praise and worship. Many times I don't feel like worshiping and fail miserably at it. But thank God He is full of grace and mercy and we can begin anew.

How are you giving glory, honor and thanks to God for all He has done? I encourage you to spend some time worshiping at the feet of Jesus!

During time spent in the study of Revelation God has laid this prayer on my heart for myself. Maybe it is yours too!

Dear Jesus,

Give me a desperation for your Word, your holiness, to be engaged, to be disciplined to pray and to study. Give me a thirst and hunger like never before. The day of the Lord is near. Give me wisdom and new revelations of you, who you are and change me accordingly. Give me a longing and desire for you, not things of this world. Amen
