Exodus 14:29-31 But the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right and on their left. That day the Lord saved Israel from the hands of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians lying dead on the shore. And when the Israelites saw the great power of the Lord displayed against the Egyptians, the people feared the Lord and put their trust in him and in Moses his servant.

These verses are how we know God can and will save us from what is enslaving us! This was a joyful and very powerful God moment. See, the Israelites were trying to get out of slavery from the Egyptians. We all have something/someone/ multiple things that we fear or are a slave to.

What are you a slave to? Did God not open the waters and save the Israelites from slavery? God can and will split your sea so you can walk right through.

Put your trust in God and He will- with no doubt- drown your fears in perfect love. And that is when you stand and shout! You're free!

Prayer- Dear God, In so many ways I am like the Israelites. Take my fear and fill my heart with your love. God, you are an awesome father! Make me free Lord. In your name I pray. Amen
